COMPREHENSION

Directions (For the 20 items which follow) :

In this Section you have four short passages. After each passage, you will find some questions based on the passage. First, read a passage and answer the questions based on it. You are required to select your answers based on the contents of the passage and opinions of the author only.

PASSAGE I

Literature and history are twin sisters, inseparable. In the days of our own grandfathers, and for many generations before them, the basis of education was the Greek and Roman classics for the educated, and the Bible for all. In the classical authors and in the Bible, history and literature were closely interwoven, and it is that circumstance which made the old form of education so stimulating to the thought and imagination of our ancestors. To read the classical authors and to read the Bible was to read at once the history and the literature of the three greatest races of the ancient world. No doubt the classics and the Bible were read in a manner we now consider uncritical but they were read according to the best tenets of the time and formed a great humanistic education. Today the study both of the classics and of the Bible has dwindled to small proportions. What has taken their place? To some extent the vacuum has been filled by a more correct knowledge of history and a wider range of literature. But I fear that the greater part of it has been filled up with rubbish.

1. Which of the following statements best reflects the underlying tone of the passage?
  - (a) Literature and history are mutually exclusive
  - (b) Literature and history are complementary to each other
  - (c) The study of literature is meaningless without any knowledge of history.
  - (d) Literature and history are inseparably linked together in the classics and the Bible
2. The author of the above passage says that in the past the basis of education for all people, irrespective of their intellectual calibre, was
  - (a) Greek and Roman classics
  - (b) The Bible
  - (c) A correct knowledge of history
  - (d) A wider range of literature
3. The author of the above passage says that the classics and the Bible were read by his ancestors
  - (a) methodically and with discretion.
  - (b) in a manner that broadened their view of life
  - (c) with great emphasis on their literary values
  - (d) without critical discrimination but in the light of their humanistic culture

4. According to the author of the above passage, the old form of education, based on the study of the classics and of the Bible, has

- (a) succeeded in creating interest in history
- (b) laid the basis of human civilization
- (c) had a gradual decline in our time
- (d) been rejuvenated in the context of modern education

5. The author of the above passage fears that the greater part of the vacuum created by lack of interest in the classics and the Bible has been filled up by

- (a) a richer sense of history
- (b) a wider range of literature
- (c) worthless ideas
- (d) a new philosophy of life

PASSAGE II

During his early days as editor of the popular magazine, Saturday Evening Post, George Lorimer did much of the reading of unsolicited stories. This meant endless hours of sitting at the desk, pouring over big stacks of manuscripts, trying to decide which were worthy of publication and which were not. Lorimer became an expert at making these decisions.

One day he received a huffy letter from a would-be writer who had a complaint. "Last week you rejected my story," she wrote. "I am positive you did not read it, because, as a test, I pasted together pages 14, 15 and 16. The manuscript came back with the pages still pasted. There is no question in my mind but that you are a sham and a disgrace to your profession."

Lorimer's reply was succinct: "Madam, at breakfast when I crack open an egg, I don't have to eat the whole egg to know it is bad."

6. Lorimer did much reading of the stories

- (a) if they were the solicited ones
- (b) when they appeared to be bad

- (d) he was prompt in writing letters

8. The lady wrote a huffy letter because

- (a) her story was rejected
- (b) her story was rejected unread
- (c) her story was rejected although it was good
- (d) Lorimer was biased in his decision

9. Lorimer's reply was

- (a) irrelevant
- (b) rude
- (c) witty
- (d) funny

10. Lorimer read the stories

- (a) because he enjoyed reading them
- (b) in order to publish them
- (c) only to find fault with them
- (d) in order to review them

PASSAGE III

As the tortoise tucks its feet and head inside the shell and will not come out even though you may break the shell into pieces, even so the character of the man who has control over his motives and organs, is unchangeably established. He controls his own inner forces, and nothing can draw them out against his will. By this continuous reflex of good thoughts and good impressions moving over the surface of the mind, the tendency to do good becomes strong, and in consequence, we are able to control the Indriyas or sense organs.

11. The author uses the phrase 'inner forces' in this passage. Which of the following would be its most correct meaning in the context ?
- (a) Emotional disturbances in man
  - (b) Strength of the internal organs
  - (c) Forces produced by sense organs
  - (d) Reflection of the intellect
12. Which of the following statements would illustrate the metaphor in the passage ?
- (a) Man is slow-moving and slow-witted
  - (b) A man of character refuses to be influenced by outside compulsions against his will
  - (c) Man confines himself to a life of isolation
  - (d) Man cannot have a good character or strong will
13. Which of the following statements may be assumed to reflect the central theme of the passage ?
- (a) Good thoughts lead to the control of the sense organs
  - (b) Control of the sense organs leads to good thoughts
  - (c) Character, though established, may be disturbed by outside forces
  - (d) No man can achieve success in destroying the inner forces
14. Which of the following statements would be most correct in explaining the metaphorical meaning of 'break the shell into pieces' ?
- (a) Destruction of the human body
  - (b) Breaking of the physical environment of man
  - (c) Attempt to destroy man's character
  - (d) Inflicting physical and mental agony on man
15. The passage consists of two long sentences and a short one. The purpose of this style could be to suggest that
- (a) it is impossible for man to attain perfection of character
  - (b) the attainment of perfect character is the result of a long process of mental discipline
  - (c) the whole life process is clumsy
  - (d) there is a lot of confusion in our understanding of sense organs, character, etc.

PASSAGE IV

One of the most serious problems confronting our country is that of a fast-growing population. In fact, it is at the root of many other problems. At the moment, thanks to planning, we are able to produce food and cloth sufficient for our people and even in some excess. The position in regard to accommodation is even now far from satisfactory in spite of our efforts.

16. "It is at the root of many other problems" means that

(a) it is found along with many other problems

(b) it is caused by many other problems

(c) it gives rise to many other problems

(d) it is buried under many other problems

17. The present satisfactory position in regard to food and cloth is due to

(a) the fact that the population has been controlled

(c) is improving rapidly

(d) is the result of total neglect

20. At present Indians have

(a) more provision for cloth than accommodation

(b) more provision for accommodation than cloth

(c) abundance of cloth and accommodation

(d) scarcity of cloth and accommodation
